PRESS RELEASE

PAPUA NEW GUINEA CENTRE FOR JUDICIAL EXCELLENCE COLLABORATES WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA SCHOOL OF LAW

The Papua New Guinea Centre for Judicial Excellence (PNGJCE) Executive Director Dr. John Carey met with the UPNG School of Law Acting Executive Dean Professor John Luluaki earlier this month where important discussions were held on a range of matters inclusive of increasing the collaboration between the PNGCJE and UPNG. The PNGCJE in partnership with the UPNG School of Law hosts the annual Sir Buri Kidu Lecture Series at UPNG whose target audience includes Judges, Magistrates, Court Staff, the Law and Justice Sector and Law Students.

Dr. Carey said, "The PNGCJE, whose area of focus also include the facilitation of judicial education and training for the law and justice sector is pleased to work with the UPNG School of Law in hosting the annual Sir Buri Kidu Lecture Series, which has had eminent jurists present in past years such as the Chief Justice of South Africa Hon. Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng, the Chief Justice of Queensland Hon. Justice Catherine Holmes, retired Australia High Court Chief Justice Robert French and Justice of the Federal Court of Australia and Justice of the Supreme and National Court of PNG Hon. Justice Berna Collier".

Dr. Carey presented copies of PNGCJE's special edition newsletter to Professor Luluaki to be circulated to the Law Faculty at UPNG. The PNGCJE looks forward to increasing its level of cooperation with UPNG as there are ongoing research being conducted by the PNGCJE on attitudes towards Access to Justice and Family Law.
